

Evermore Services

Evermore Services is expanding its national network of independent food safety auditors across Chicagoland.

We are seeking experienced professionals with strong retail food safety backgrounds to support third-party audit programs for multi-unit restaurant brands. This is a flexible, independent contractor role designed for high performers who value autonomy, consistency, and credibility in their work.

What You'll Do

- Conduct structured food safety audits at restaurant locations
- Deliver clear, objective, and defensible observations
- Evaluate operational practices with a focus on risk and consistency
- Submit timely, accurate reports aligned with Evermore standards

Why Evermore

- Flexible scheduling — control your availability
- Competitive per-audit compensation
- Consistent audit methodology (not checklist-driven)
- Professional independence with direct leadership support
- Opportunity to work with respected regional and national brands

Qualifications

- Strong background in retail food safety (restaurant, audit, or regulatory)
- Experience conducting inspections, audits, or operational assessments
- Excellent written communication (clear, professional, objective)
- Detail-oriented with the ability to assess risk consistently
- Certifications such as ServSafe, CP-FS, REHS, or equivalent preferred

Compensation

- Per-audit pay structure (competitive; based on experience and market coverage)
- Travel considerations built into audit assignments where applicable

Ideal Candidate

- Self-directed and reliable
- Consistent evaluator (not subjective or overly lenient/strict)
- Comfortable working independently in field environments
- Respected by operators while maintaining audit integrity

How to Apply

Submit your resume and a brief summary of your food safety/audit experience. Include your primary city and surrounding areas you're available to cover.
